This man's case was settled nearly 15 years ago & it seems undesirable now to revert to the Resident about it.

1) The Comptroller's view of the case seems correct. 3 years of Petri's British service may be allowed to count as Mysore service. On the date of his first retirement, Petri's service was thus 3 years + 17 years + 7 months = 20 — 7 — ∴ he prefers an enhancement of his pension in the form of a gratuity for his 20 years service of 6 years odd. This is permissible under the Rules. His total service is thus 26 years odd. Pension has to be calculated on his pay at the time of his second retirement, viz on Rs 15. He is entitled to Rs 7 — 8 — instead of Rs 6 — 10 — 8. This increased pension may be ordered to be given to him from the date on which he was retired a second time.

This is his request made to me in person. J.
24-1-96

2) His first pre-retirement

was due to a reduction of establishment. The Rules entitled him to a notice of 3 months or 3 three months pay instead. It would appear that no notice was given him. He may therefore be given Rs 20 × 3 = 60 months Rs 20 which was the Pension drawn by him during these three months.

3) The man has been waiting, & the case seems to be a fairly satisfactory settlement of his case.

Subject to 27/2 ✓

15-1-98

This may be sanctioned under the circumstances of the case, as there seems no likelihood of Govt. Sanctioning the Proposal of proportionate pension in the case.

The Comptroller in Mysore.
Bangalore.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 155, dated 17th April 1885, forwarding an application for a compensation pension on behalf of Ananthu Ramiengar, formerly a Conicopoly and Store Keper in the Madras Commissariat Department, and since September 1865, employed as a Munshi in the Hale Narsipur Munsiff's Court in Mysore.

2. In reply, I am to state that as it appears that Ananthu Ramiengar, voluntarily resigned his service under the British Government and has paid no contribution on account of his pension, he has apparently no claim upon the British Government for pension.

10

The application is herewith returned with a request that it may submitted to the Government of His Highness the Maharajah of Mysore for orders. —

Vl

Office of the Comptroller of Mysore

Bangalore 11/12 March 1896.

No. 4940.

From

E. R. Seberanger Esquire
Comptroller of Mysore

To,

The Deputy Commissioner
Hassan.

With reference to his letter No. 909 of the 7th December 1895 forwarding for opinion the Vernacular papers in Connection with the case of C. Ananthia-Ramaiengar, pensioned Munsif of the Arkalgud Munsiffs Court, and retired thereof of the same Taluq, I have the honor to observe the following:-

That in addition to the services rendered by him in Mysore, he had also served served for a period of 8 years from ——— 1857 to 1865 in the British Commissariat Department and which was not recognized when he was retired in 1884 on the one third pension of Rs 6-10-8 per mensem then granted him.

Anandia Ramasingam therefore now puts forward a claim for the benefit of the provision laid down under Article 417 (which is a reproduction of the Dewan's Notification No 98 dated 31st August 1892 (1882?)) that 3 years of the British Service be allowed to count as — Mysore Service. If the applicant resigned — British Service to take up Mysore Service this may be be done, his British Service being 8 Years and odd.

The total service up to date of final retirement would be -

	Years.	Months.	Days.
British Service	3	"	"
Imperial Service	17	7	1
Do. Service	6	3	11
Total	26	10	12

The Amount of pension to which he would be entitled, taking the whole as continued Service is half of Rs 15 i.e. average emoluments -

	Rs.	As.	P.
that is	7	8	"
Deducting the pension he already draws.	6	10	8
Leaves a balance of	"	13	4

The Amount of gratuity equal to the pension at age of 55 will be $\frac{40}{48}$ of 108 : Rupees 90

The gratuity for the 2nd Service of 6 Years is equal to 6 x 15 = Rs 90

He is therefore entitled to

to Rupees 90 provided the 3 years of British Service is taken into calculation.

Ammonia Ramiah pur is also entitled to three months pay &
at the time of first retirement,
he had not been served with the usual notice under Article 287 (Section 10 & (2)
Civil Pension Code 5th Edition
(then in force) this claim having been made only not now after a lapse of 9 years, it is left to the Government either to recognise or reject it.

With reference to his letter No 909 of the 7th Decr 95: forwarding for opinion the Vernacular papers in connection with the case of C. Arunachalam Rama Iyengar, late Munsif of the Kalutara Division Municipal Court, I have the honor to observe as follows,—

That in addition to the services rendered by by him in Mysore, he had also served for a period of 9 years viz from 1857 to 1865 in the British Commissariat Dept. which was not recognized when he retired in 1884 on the one third pension of Rs. 6-10-8 which was then granted him. Ananthia Ramiengar therefore now puts forward a claim for the benefit of the provisions laid down vide is reproduced below under art. 417, that 3 years of the British Service should be also allowed to him as service qualifying for pension. If the final appt. enjoys this to Govt. to take up Govt. sanction this may be done; his B. S. being 8 years total.

The total service up to date of final retirement would then be — B. S. — 3 — " — "

Letter from the D'Yanur Kanan Dt., forwarding for opinion the case of C. Ananta Ramaiyar Pensioned munshi of Hole Kurumbur Munsiffs Court & retired sheriff of the Dane Valey.

1- Ananta Ramaiyar was first employed as a munshi in the Hole Kurumbur Munsiffs Court from 5-9-65 to 31-8-84 (i.e 18 11-26) and was retired on a Compensation pension of Rs 6-10-8 (ie 1/3rd of Rs 20/- for a qualifying service of 18 y. 11 m. 26 d.

2- After a lapse of 1-8-9 he was re-employed as a munshi & sheriff. from Rs 12 to 15/ from 10-5-86 to 6-8-95. & was retired for the 2nd time on attaining 55 yrs of age- making a service of 9-2-28 minus leave otherwise pensionable for 2-11-17 6-3-11 to count as qualifying-

3- Article 341 a & b allow the option of a Compn pensioner re-employed either to retain his ~~first pension & not count past service~~, or relinquish it & count last service for a future pension by combining it with the new as one service

4- Article 350 A. provides a pension or Gratuity for the 2nd Service, ~~subject to a limitation~~ subject to certain limitations -

It might be argued Ananta Ramaiyar, when made to forfeit a portion of his pension (i.e Rs 1-10-8 of Retired pay Rs 15- & pension Rs 6-10-8 (& former pay Rs 20/) on being promoted to Rs 15/ was not given allowed to draw the diff of Rs 1-5-4 between his former Rs 20/ & his pay as re-employed Rs 12 & pension Rs 6-10-8 though the intention of Act. 288 seems to be that the person retired ought be in a "worse position" than that he was before being called on Com. pension.

from '57 to 28/9/65 - services rendered in the British Consular Dept.

7-10-

Since A. K. did not under the provisions of Act. 350 A. A. K. can be considered to be entitled to a gratuity of Rs 901 for the 2nd qualifying service of 6-3-11 as the person to which he would have been entitled on annuity for each year of service - Rs 157 for each 3rd year of service -

A. K. in support of petition to the Govt. 29th Feb. referred to makes the following averments:-

1- That his service rendered in the British Consular Dept. from 57 to 65 were not recognised when his first pension he was called in 84 / & the one third of Rs 6-10-0 was granted -

2- That no notice was given him on about, & by which he could be accustomed to the 1/3rd cut in his pension & he

3 That the former service be added to the 2nd service & the whole be calculated for the purpose of computing the annuity to which he is entitled on the basis of 1/60th of emoluments for each completed year of service rendered in the British service, for the purpose of gratuity as allowed by Govt. to persons in the Indian service, & the amount of the gratuity

Letter dtd 9.9.97 / 12/95 per Rs 4 (Rupees [illegible] pounds 3 pence) with reference to remarks & Amt after which he retired on pension –

1– He was first appointed as a writer in the Public Works Dept on Rs 6-10-8 per mensem on 8/9/65 & on 1-8-84 was retired on compassionate pension of Rs 11/0 per mensem / per annum / per annum Rs 132 / Rs 6 / Rs 17-7-4 qualifying service of

2. After a break of 1-8-9 he was re-appointed as a writer on Rs 10 per mensem & on the abolition of the office he was retired on 6-8-95 & was given a pension of Rs 6-12-5 / per annum 105-56 being the proportion of his retiring pension of Rs 15 per mensem which he had drawn on the date of his retirement as qualifying service.

9-2-28 days
2-11-17
6-2-11

3 Article 341 (b) allows the option of a pension (or gratuity) either to retain his first pension & count past service or relinquish it & count the a future pension & combine the old with the new service as one service.

4 Article 350 A. provides for a pension or gratuity for the first half service subject to a limitation when the pensioner has forfeited his first pension or gratuity.

5. The effect Amount of Article allows him to draw his first pension plus his pay so as to make the total amount equal to the pay of the post he holds 6-10-8 & thus he is deprived of a portion of his pension. Compassionate claim the benefit of the rule in Art 341.

6 In the Audit Office service of 6 yrs is counted as qualifying service & counts the cal: there in the calculation under Art 350 A.

7 The question now to be decided is whether he is entitled to an enhanced pension for the subsequent service in combination with the former, or is entitled to gratuity

In order to have his former term combined with his sub. term for the purpose of calculating his term he ought not to have drawn any part of his pension, but the Object of this rule seems to be, that when a person is provided with an opportunity of which either to avail to or reach them his former pay, in which case he is ~~not permitted~~ any portion has the option of suspending the drawal of his pension & entering his pension service or his subsequent retirement & even in this case if the two terms were combined, ~~if the~~ the total term amount to 22 yrs & the pension ~~calculated for~~ calculated to B.
